ABOUT

Two women. One man. Gabriela, a translator, and Marlene, a hair stylist, meet in a prison waiting area. After they engage in a casual, friendly conversation they discover that they are there to visit the same man. Laugh with this irreverent comedy and find out how these two women face adversity and find themselves in hysterical situations as they join forces to fundraise the amount of money required to bail out the man they both love. This staging features performances by Gladys Ramos and Iriany Sánchez. A Rose By Any Other Name will be presented in Spanish with English supertitles. Not appropriate for minors.
